

Moscow International Film Festival MIFF 23-30 June 2016 chooses Austrian produced film EXODUS TO SHANGHAI

PR, Vienna, Austria, FashionTV 08.06.2016

Exodus to Shanghai, after having been chosen for Shanghai International Film Festival 11-19 June 2016, has been officially selected for the Moscow International Film Festival 23-30 June 2016. Exodus to Shanghai has been picking up momentum with International Film Festivals around the world choosing the feature film in their official line-up. Regardless that there are no major Hollywood Stars headlining the main roles, the engaging film touches the people around the world with its message and beautiful imagery.

Logline:

An Action/Adventure film of Dr. Ho the Chinese Consul in Vienna in 1938, born and raised in Hunan, Home of Mao Zedong and other top Chinese Leaders, who issued Exit Visas to many Jews against the instruction of his superiors. Together with Fannia and Bruce they must leave Vienna as the Gestapo is chasing them to get the Jews and Hitler's painting. They learn to fight against the Nazis.

See trailer on MichelAdam.tv

FashionTV: TV and New Media of fashion/lifestyle related content broadcasting the latest news & information. A global 24/7 TV network focused exclusively on fashion, beauty, trends, celebrities & style.

FashionTV+ is the new VOD channel of FashionTV available for distributors with 20K+ hours content in HD, 4K and 360VR featuring fashion films, catwalks, red carpets, and fashion documentaries updated daily, weekly, monthly and seasonally. For more information visit ftv.com

FashionTV Films is a new division of the brand having produced Exodus to Shanghai as its first feature film.

For more information on Exodus to Shanghai visit MichelAdam.tv or contact Victoria@ftv.com

